PHILIPS

A complete package

The Philips and Smartsign combo gives you the complete package, both hardware and software included, no external media player needed. Just plug it in, connect to your network, add Smartsign and you're up and running, simple as that.

Control your screens

Smartsign ensures that your screens are running what they need to be running, with automatic screenshots taken on a regular basis. Rock solid - rest assured that your Digital Signage setup is up to date and doing what it's supposed to do - all the time.

Keep it simple

With the Android integration, Digital Signage by Philips and Smartsign is extremely adaptable. The on-board media player (SoC) is powerful yet versatile, able to work in a wide variety of digital signage applications. You design – we make it happen.
